Some Good Days

It's not all about the killing of ducks and geese that bring us to the duck blinds on the cold and windy mornings. There is nothing better than making that wing shot on a fast moving duck. Primarily its the good times spent in the blinds with our fellow hunters. Most if not all of us have built lifelong friendships and relations with the people we hunt with over the years. That is one of the reasons I always tell new members that "We shoot are share of ducks and geese but we also enjoy the experience of the club". Like Saturday Lunches. Coming up to the club house and siting at the bar and having a soft drink or cup of coffee after the morning hunt and talking about the shots we missed or made. GOOD Days for sure!!
