Project for the Summer

We are planning a number of improvements this summer to increase our success in the coming seasons. The first of these is to install permanent seating in the pit blind. These will be constructed so you will be able to just step over the edge of the pit right onto the set without the use of a ladder. At the main blinds we are providing an extra layer of fencing to prevent the native grass from being knocked down by the dogs retrieving the duck back to the blinds. We are also going to change the planting a bit on the North field to facilitate better goose hunting. We will also be setting up decoy rotation in on the big lake. There are some South and North lake blind improvements that we are making that should improve success in hunting.
